Emily Carr University of Art + Design Policies

10.2 Gifts-in-Kind

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to establish standards for fundraising.

SCOPE

This policy applies to fundraising undertaken on behalf of Emily Carr University of Art + Design (University).

POLICY

1. University Advancement is the fundraising agent of the University.
2. University Advancement is responsible for approving, coordinating and acknowledging all solicitations made on behalf of the University for private support. University Advancement shall, in consultation with divisions, departments, and centres as appropriate, carry on activities to increase charitable contributions to the University. These include the soliciting, receiving, recording and the receipting of all donations or gifts of any charitable nature, including gifts-in-kind, corporate sponsorships and value-added contributions.
3. Individuals representing the University are responsible to the University and act under University authority when engaged in fundraising activities. All donors will be treated in a consistent and appropriate manner in keeping with the University's high standards of community relations and public confidence.
